An amusing incident occurred a few days ago in St. Louis. Among the vis. Sunday law against base ball players at itors to the panorama of the Siege of Cleveland, O. Paris, recently opened on Washington avenue, there chanced to meet a Prussian and a Frenchman, both of whom had participated in the memorable siege. The pair quietly admired the beauties of the wonderful painting for some time, when a casual remark by the Prussian relative to some incident of the siege elicited a retort from the Frenchman. In a moment the seige was in progress again, and the air was filled with a mixture of French and German wordy missiles, and more serious hostilities were threatened. The timely intervention of Colonel James, the lecturer, restored peace and harmony, however, and French and Prussian retired in good orPERSONAL AND GENERAL

Fisherman for some time past have been seining fish in Lake Contrary, five miles below St. Joseph, in open violation of law. A war against the fishermen was inaugurated not long since by Sheriff Carr, and the result is that six of the law-breakers are now in jail. The result of the war is almost a complete breaking up of the gang that for years has made its living in the lake. The hauls in some instances have been 1,000 pounds a day, and, as the State has long been endeavoring to stock the lake with German carp, until now it has been throwing away time and money. A sensational episode growing out of the late arrest of J. D. Goodfellow, the Missouri Pacific Railroad agent at Houstonia, for the embezzlement of $215 of the company's money, transpired recently. 'At the time of the arrest of young Goodfellw, he confessed to his crime, and gave as the inciting cause thereto that he had been led into it by gamblers of Houstonia, whose names the gave to the Prosecuting Attorney. His statement was that they had enticed him into playing poker, and afterward kept him in a state of intoxication, with the view and intent of inducing him, while his mind was thus clouded, to appropriate the proceeds of his office to his own use in order to camble with it, and that, having succeeded, they swindled him out of the money with cards and kept it. At the time of this confession the matter was kept quiet in order to take the necessary steps to apprehend the parties charged with the crime, and a few days since Constable Carnes proceeded to Houstonia with duly signed warrants for the arrest of Buck Berry, J. T. Dereiux and J. C. POUNDMAKER'S SURRENDER.

The Rebellious Indian Chief Surrenders Unconditionally to General Middleton, and Brings In His Plunder, Arms, Etc.-His Warriors Sent P: ok to Their Reservation-The Rebellion Virtually Ended.

WINNIPEG, MAN., May 28 .- A dispatch from Battleford says that Chief Poundmaker surrendered unconditionally to General Middleton, who reached Battleford Sunday. Poundmaker and thirty braves are prisoners, and will be held to await the action of the Government. The following is Poundmaker's message to General Middleton, received at Carlton: SIR-I am camped with my people on the Eagle Hills, where I am reached by the news of the surrender of Riel. No letter came with the news, so I can not tell how far it may be true. I send some Church convened in Christ Church, St. of my men to you to learn the truth and the terms of peace. I and my people wish you to send terms in writing so that we may be under no misunderstanding, from which so much trouble may arise. We have twenty-one prisoners, whom we have tried to treat well in every respect.

With greetings. [Signed] POUNDMAKER. Middleton's reply to him was as fol-in a cell at the station the sergeant in POUNDMAKER-I have utterly defeated charge heard suspicious sounds coming the half-breeds and Indians, and have from the cell, and upon investigation made prisoners of Riel and most of his courcil. I have made no terms with them, neither will I make with you. I have men enough to whip you and your people, or, at least, drive you away to starve, and will do so, unless you bring taining hot water and grease a few days in the teams you took, yourself and your counsellors to me with your arms at Battleford on Friday, the 26th. I am glad to hear you have treated the prisoners well and have released them. FRED MIDDLETON, [Signed] Major-General.

In accordance with this, Poundmaker surrendered to-day. At eight o'clock yesterday morning a wagon train numbering sixty-seven vehicles arrived with the half-breeds, who corralled themselves just west of the barracks and then laid down their arms. The party numbered about 150 all told. The arms consisted of four rifles and seventeen guns, and in searching their wagons some few more rifles were found. At eleven o'clock an Indian rider in full war-paint dashed in, saying that Poundmaker would arrive in about an hour to surrender with all his counsellors. Promptly on time Poundmaker arrived, with the captured wagon train, some stock and wagons loaded with repeaters and shot guns, and a few gunlocks, numbering in all 210. General Middleton held a big powwow, which lasted three hours. Poundmaker blamed Riel for inciting the Indians to rise and he came in to tell the General to kill him, so as to save his people. Several chiefs followed, blaming

Riel for misleading them. A scene occurred in the powwow when General Middleton asked who killed Bar-Tremont and Instructor Payne. One brave rose from the circle and kneeled at the General's feet, saving the great chief could cut him in pieces, as he had killed Payne. He further said he did not want all punished for his offense. He said he killed Payne in self-defense. His grandson Wowansie confessed to having mur-Barney Tremont in dered The murderers were then blood. taken into custody. General Middieton said the Government would detain Poundmaker. Lean Man, Breaking Ice and Yellow-Mud, but told the others to go back to their respective reserves for the present, and if they conducted themselves properly they would get rations. The braves departed happy. Poundmaker and the other chiefs are in the guard-room at the fort. When asked what he was going to do Poundmaker replied: "I can not say," but added that an unknown power drew him eastward. He said past events would not have occurred had he known that he was regarded as such a great chief. He said he had sent word to Big Bear to surrender. The remainder of Poundmaker's party are expected to-day. They evidently brought the least valuable of their arms in yesterday, and the young braves are believed to have all of the best rifles. It is thought they will break into small parties and escape to the United States. Big Bear is said to be only thirty miles from here, and it is reported that he is coming on to surrender. Although the uprising is virtually ended the summer will be spent disarming Indians and trying the half breeds. The settlers say they will not venture back to their farms until the Indians are put where they can do no harm. Yesterday 240 braves surrendered. OTTAWA, CAN., May 28.—In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, the Minister of Militia read the following telegram from General Middleton, dated Battleford: "I have made prisoners of Poundmaker, Lean Man, Yellow-Mud and Breaking-Through-the-Ice, the most influential and dangerous men about him. I have also White Bear, who killed Indian Instructor Payne, and Wowensie, who killed Tremont, the rancher. My next take may be Big Bear. Poundmaker brought in the teams taken and gave up 210 stands of arms and five revolv-I have ordered them to give up the flour taken and the horses and cattle, and am sending part of the police to see that it is all given up. The Ninetieth has just arrived by steamer, and is in camp. The rest are coming by land. If obliged to move on the Indians, I propose to organize a force of mounted infantry, made up of mounted police, Belton scouts and some mounted artillerymen, in all about 300 men, and with light carts and as little baggage and supplies as possible, so as to scour the whole country and strike rapidly. I expect that Big Bear will soon give up. If he does, I shall treat him as I have Poundmaker. If he does hot, I shall attack him immediately.'

DISGUSTED GERMANS.

The German Citizens of Kansas City, Mo. Disgusted at the Lax Administration o Justice in the City, Propose to See That the Murderer of a Fellow-Countryman Does Not Escape-The Chief of Police

Stirred Up. KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 29 .- The fol owing appeal was yesterday promulgat ed by representative German citizens of Kansas City, the occasion being the murder of Gottlieb Wieland at the Cartoon Saloon. The appeal carries its own explanation:

GERMAN FELLOW-CITIZENS - One of our countrymen, ignorant of the language of the country and its conditions, has been shot by the hand of a cowardly murderer. He was robbed in an infamous den in which he sought a refreshment. and finally shot in a cowardly manner by the bartender. In the same place several days ago another victim was seriously wounded by a pistol shot and the criminal set at liberty on bail. German fellow-citizens, as former examples proved, it is not improbable that the murderer will escape merited punishment, as the perverseness of justice will find means and ways to let the murderer go free. Shall we consent to the commission of robbery and murder contrary to law and justice? Every citizen who takes an interest in the welfare of our city ought to take part in bringing this matter to an end. This time the victim is one of our countrymen. Let us, therefore, take steps to avoid the escape of the murderer. We, therefore, request all law-abiding German citizens to assemble Friday, May 29, in the lower room of Turner Hall, Twelfth and Oak streets, where, by united council means will be found to bring the murder to jus-

The Grand Jury yesterday returned an indictment of murder in the first degree against James Murphy, the murderer of Gottlieb Wieland, and against Richard Edwards, the slayer of James Costello, the young man from Chicago, on election day. The Grand Jury also returned an indictment against Hemple Stevens, proprietor of the Cartoon Place, for felonious assault with intent to kill.

In speaking of the closing of this place to-day to a reporter, Chief of Police Speers said: "Of course the Cartoon place is a famous resort of thugs and thieves who are screened and protected by the proprietor, but it is only one place out of many of like kind. I shall not hesitate to prevent such places from getting licenses hereafter. No license of any kind should be granted to a man who runs such a place."

part of town?" "Oh, no, my boy. There is one of the worst dives in the city right on Main street amid business houses. The pro prietor was fined $200 once on a raid but it is getting as bad as ever. No li cense should be granted to any man who allows improper characters to be harbored about his place of business." The Chief is in earnest about closing up hard dives, and no matter whether such places are finely furnished in rich localities or whether they are on lower Main street, they will be handled without gloves in the future. The action of the indignant Germans indicates that the law-abiding, tax-paying element is determined that acquittal of red-handed murderers by Cracker Neck and Six-Mile,

James country jurors shall cease.

MEXICO'S DAY. Our Sister Republic Spreads Herself and Celebrates Her Day at the New Orlean Exposition With Becoming Dignity and

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 30 .- Mexico has done nothing in a half-hearted way at the Exposition, but yesterday she surpassed herself in the brilliancy with which she celebrated her day. All the public officials and city societies had been invited to participate, and heartily responded. Governor McEnery and his staff, and all officials, consuls, etc., left the foot of Canal street on the steamer Jesse K. Bell shortly after noon. Commissioner Zarate, of Mexico, received the whole party at the Alhambra, their mineral building, and proceeded thence to the Music Hall. An address of welcome was delivered by Major E. A. Burke, with responses in panish by J. T. Dezamacoma, the Mexican Consul, and General Zarate, Commissioner-General for Mexico. An ode to Mexico by J. N. Maynard and an oration on Mexico by Hon. J. G. R. Pitkin, concluded the ceremonies in the hall. The audience proceeded to the Mexican exhibit, where an address was delivered by Dr. P. Ordellas, Secretary of the Mex-Can Commission. Floral offerings were made of life size portraits of Washington and Hidalgo-liberators of sister republics-after which the Commissioner-General of Mexico and the Mexican officials held a reception at their headquarters.

A grand pyrotechnical display was given in the evening. Ten thousand Mexican souvenirs of the occasion were given to ladies and children during the day. The Mexican headquarters were filled up handsomely. The beautiful gold embroidered chair and canopy that served as a throne for the ill-starred Maximilian gave eclat to the occasion. The celebrated Mexican Military Band furnished music throughout the day. The Board of Management presented Captain Payne with a handsome gold medal in appreclation of the kindness of the band-in furnishing music on all State occasions without pay. Large crowds were present

Parnell's Followers. BELFAST, May 30.—A large meeting of Mr. Parnell's followers was held here yesterday afternoon. Messrs. Healy, Biggar, Harrington and Deasy spoke. Mr. Healy accused Lord Hartington, Secretary for War, of shamming illness in order to escape responsibility for the Cabinet's action on the crimes act. Mr. Healy also stated that the Parnellites will contest thirty-three seats in Ulster at the coming Parliamentary elections, and he States; that it shall proceed from the predicted that they would win twenty- United States, and that it shall come one and decide the issue in the remain- either under the American or the Spanish

The Insurance Men-CHICAGO, ILL., May 30 .- The Insurance Union, composed of general agents and managers from all parts of the United States, Europe and Canada, completed its session yesterday afternoon. It was decided to confer with the Ohio State authorities and also to get an opinion from Attorney-General Garland upon the O'Neill bill, now operating in Ohio, to see what suggestions can be made toward effecting a compromise, or whether the O'Neill law should not be rescinded. The matter was placed in the hands of committees, who will report at a conference to be held at Crescent Springs, Pa., during September next.

INDIAN DEVILTRY.

DEMING, N. M., May 29 .- The Indians

so far have it, as usual, all their own way. Close on to seventy people have been killed on the Gila and in and around Silver City. So far the troops have had only one fight with the Indians. It occurred at Devil's Park, twenty miles north of Alma on the Gila, on the 23d. The Indians were struck following the old trail at Victoria. Some of the troops were wounded, but none killed. The loss of the Indians is unknown. Hudson station on the Narrow Gauge Line, between here and Silver City, has been abandoned. Hudson's Hot Springs, a favorite health resort, is strongly guarded and fortified, and all the southwestern towns have formed volunteer companies for their own protection. General Crook has relieved Bradley in command of the troops in the field, but this has not restored confidence, as the manner in which Crook petted the Indians and insulted the frontiersmen two years ago still rankles. For the short time the Apaches have been out, they have inflicted more damage than on any raid for the last five years. The number of regular troops at Crook's disposal in this district is about 500-twelve companies in all. The indications are that there will be general Indian war. The settlers throughout the country are gathering together in the towns and in trenches, and stock and mines are abandoned. It is reported that 100 Indians yesterday crossed the railroad track near Nutt Station, going south toward the Florida Mountains. If this raid is to be ended soon, 1,000 more troops should be sent to the Territory at once. DEMING, N. M., May 29 .- Thirty-five Charicahuas rode up to an adobe building five miles north of Silver City last evening and killed the occupants-a Mexican, his wife and three children. Then they came on to within two miles of Silver City to another Mexican hut, and, after shooting the Mexican inmate, took his two-year-old child by the feet and striking its head against the wall of the house, hung the little one on a meat hook in the well. The Mexican was badly wounded, but not dead, and walked to town and gave the alarm. A white family named Phillips, consisting of seven persons, were also killed, seven miles from Silver City last night. A band of thirty-five Indians, with a large number of squaws, attempted to raid Camp Fleming about nine o'clock. All the women and children of the camp were removed into a shaft of the "Old Man" Mine, and the entrance was well barricaded. The Indians, as shown by their signal flashes, remained in the vicinity until near morning, and then went south, and were seen next morning rounding up all the horses in the neigh to-night. ENGLE, N. M., May 29 .- A fight probably occurred yesterday between a company of troops under Captain Chaffee, of the Fourth Cavalry, and thirty-five hostiles, about forty miles northwest of The Indians were seen at daylight by a Mexican scout, making for Willow Springs, to which point the troops were hurrying to intercept them. The Indians did not know of the approach of the troops from this quarter, and hopes are entertained that the entire band has been killed or captured. Reports say a large number of the Navajoes have already taken the war-path.

WHY HE GOES, Senator Edmunds' Visit to England For tne Purpose of Testifying in an Important Suit Involving the Validity of an American Marriage, a Fortune and an

New York, May 29 .- Senator Edmunds was sitting in Mr. Clarence A. Seward's office yesterday when a reporter introduced himself.

"I am too busy to give you much information," said the Senator. "I am on my way to England to lay before the Committee on Privileges of the House of Lords certain points of American law."

"My testimony is needed in a civil suit affecting the title of one of the oldest peerages in England, the income of which s $80,000 a year. It is the title of the Earl of Lauderdale. The history of the contest was published in the newspapers some time ago. The suit is to be tried in the House of Lords in June, and will be argued before the Committee on Privileges by the Attorney-General on one side and the Solicitor-General on the other, and a great array of legal talent." It is said the case in which Senator Edmunds is engaged turns on the validity of the marriage of Sir Richard Maitland with Mary McAdam, which was celebrated by Dr. Ogilvie, of Trinity Church, in 1772, in this city. The estate is claimed by two Maitlands, one Major Frederick Henry Maitland, of the Bengal Cavalry, and political agent for Central India. He is the direct descendant of Sir Richard Maitland, who was Adjutant-General o the North American Colony from 1765 to 1772, and the fourth son of the sixth Earl of Lauderdale. The other claimant is Sir James Ramsay Maitland, who is a descendant of the fifth son of the sixth Earl. If the House of Lords comes to the conclusion that Mary MacAdam was lawfully married to Sir Richard Maitland, and that her children were born in lawful wedlock, then Sir Frederick will become the next Earl of Landerdale. If the decision is against the validity of the marriage, then Sir James will succeed. It is in regard to that marriage and to the laws and customs in force in the colonies at that time that Senator Edmunds has been summoned to give testimony before the law Lords.

Washington, D. C., May 30.-The Department of State is informed by the Consul-General at Havana that under the interpretation given to the agreement of February 13th, 1884, by a recent royal order the following conditions are necessary to entitle American merchandise imported into Cuba and Porto Rico to the benefits of the third column of the tariff: That it shall be the product of the United

Seized for Debt. COLUMBUS, O., May 30 .- The Scioto

Valley Railway Company was served with an execution yesterday from Lawrence County by the Sheriff for $649,-805.67 in favor of C. P. Huntington, of Huntington, W. Va., who owns the controlling interest in the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad. The execution covers the engines, rolling stock of all kinds, real estate and the office furniture. The Sheriff of all the countles through which the road passes also levied on the road in their respective counties. The officers say this debt accumulated in three years, and was used for improvements. The road will go on as usual.

"May I ask what points you are to elucidate?"
